INSTITUTE OF CITY TEACHERS

First Session Held Yesterday Afternoon in High School Auditorium.

SEVERAL VERY INTERESTING TALKS

One of Them Was by Professor M. G. Brumbaugh, Whose Topic Was "The Language Problem"—Brilliant Address on Spain Last Night by Rev. Dr. MacArthur, Pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church of New York.

The city teachers' institute opened yesterday with a full attendance. The body of the High school auditorium presented a very gay appearance with the spring-tide hues impossible to catalogue that spread a dazzling effect over the garden of young women. At the left a little company of plainer head coverings, worn partially in the middle or in the back, made a striking contrast. They belonged to the sterner sex, the members of which were grouped together for mutual protection.

The flag of our union and several banners of the High school adorned the wall. Superintendent Howell presided with his usual dignity and grace. Rev. Thomas De Gruchy offered the invocation. A. L. Francais, president of the board of control, made the opening address as follows:

Ladies and Gentlemen: The pleasant duty devolves upon me as the presiding board of control, to extend congratulations upon this auspicious opening of another annual institute.

While meetings of teachers for educational purposes for a period of several days are not peculiar to the state of Pennsylvania, yet the freedom allowed by law to the conduct of the same, is not surpassed by any other state.

As a business man, I know the value of market quotations, and I think the responsibility of the trust imposed upon you as the intellectual guides of the generation so soon to assume the duties of manhood and womanhood. To make good citizens, to instill in the minds of young people ideas of honesty, integrity and sobriety, is a calling beyond any financial computation, yet, I hope the time may speedily come when teaching shall become a profession, and the emoluments shall be commensurate with the importance of the work.

It is not my intention today to offer any suggestions along lines that are wholly within your own province.

Some of you have been in the employ of the district for years, and each year should add to your efficiency in your chosen vocation.

The money furnished by the state and city to foster and promote the cause of education shall have been well expended, if you, as teachers, fully realize the responsibility of the trust imposed upon you as the intellectual guides of the generation so soon to assume the duties of manhood and womanhood. To make good citizens, to instill in the minds of young people ideas of honesty, integrity and sobriety, is a calling beyond any financial computation, yet, I hope the time may speedily come when teaching shall become a profession, and the emoluments shall be commensurate with the importance of the work.

I congratulate you upon the efforts of the past year as shown in your different buildings and grades, and I know I but voice the sentiment of the board of control and filled with you a week filled with that mental stimulus which will enable you to render more efficient service to the children committed to your care.

A. B. Stevens made the address of welcome, which was carefully prepared and filled with interesting thought, and largely patriotic. The most impressive part of his remarks related to the text books of the day. The members of the Grand Army of the Republic has no desire to inculcate partisanship in the public schools, he said, but they desire that the truth shall be taught. They insist that the fact shall be taught that the war was more than a mere bloody conflict, and instead that it was war between the government of the United States and a part of the people in rebellion, between two sections of our country, North and South, and not a rebellion against the government.

ONE THING HE URGED.
Mr. Stevens urged the continued recognition of the Memorial days in celebration of important events in our history.

The pupils of No. 28 school under direction of Professor Burdick sang beautifully two selections accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Lizzie Palmer. During intermission the larger proportion of the audience adjourned to the upper floor where was displayed a truly marvelous exhibition of school work, comprising specimens of drawing, painting, color studies, maps, writing, etc. There had been some skepticism expressed regarding this project, but even the most unfavorably predisposed to the idea acknowledged most cheerfully their mistake.

Among the interesting exhibits were two sets of illustrations, relating to the lives of Lincoln and Longfellow. Miss Blewitt also had a charming display of water colors, while the phonic system was also admirably indicated in exhibits of primary school.

Dr. W. G. Trumbach, of the University of Pennsylvania, made the final address of the afternoon on "The Language Problem." He is a very ready speaker with a fund of amusing anecdotes. He deplored the tendency of the times to crowd so much into the mind of the child and said that the psychologist was kept busy in endeavoring to find new fads of the educator. The plan of "crotations," which aims to bunch these various fads and families is not altogether successful. In our efforts to "enrich" the curriculum we may impoverish the child. Mastery of the mother tongue is the supreme thing. He believed that the children are not allowed to talk enough in schools. In conclusion he emphasized the necessity of language study.

DR. MACARTHUR'S ADDRESS.

Rev. Joseph K. Dixon, D. D., introduced Rev. J. S. MacArthur, D. D., the speaker of last night's lecture. Dr. MacArthur is pastor of Calvary Baptist church, of New York, and his topic was "Sunny Spain From Historic Hills." Dr. Dixon presented the speaker in a clever and brilliant way, and at the same time paid a high tribute to Superintendent Howell and the teachers of Scranton. Dr. MacArthur reviewed Spain's terrible history especially with reference to Cuba, and paid a glowing tribute to President McKinley.

His patriotic utterances stirred his hearers to wild applause and from an educational standpoint his lecture contained an incentive to word study of exceptional value.

The foremost man tonight on this globe is William McKinley, he said. When the history of this century shall be recorded, the roll of great prelatdents will read Washington, Lincoln, Grant, McKinley. He has been self-controlled, self-poised, exercising wonderful self-restraint. He did not speak to the ear of the American public; all the thoughts in his pure and patriotic heart. He could not speak to Americans without speaking to Spain. He dared not utter his inmost thought to the ear of the entire world. There is none among his biographers who loves the American republic more than he does; to none is the honor of our flag dearer than it is to President McKinley tonight. He knows what war means. He dared to and was ready to die for the republic once, and any one who has accused him of cowardice ought to be ashamed of his charge.

THREE GREAT CLASSES

Cuba has its three great classes. One who lives for the honor of Spain and cares nothing for Cuba per se, that esteems Cuba only as Cuba may do honor and glory of Spain. They are of Spanish birth, fill the offices and are at the head of the church as well as at the head of the state. They consider the Cubans only worthy to be their servants.

Since 1511 Spain has held Cuba for her own enrichment, just as once the Romans held Spain for the enrichment of Rome. She has been constantly killing the goose that lay the golden eggs. For her grasp is slippery, slippery with the blood of the Cuban people.

Never was a war waged so cruelly as that in Cuba. The process of concentration inaugurated by Pando and continued by Weyler is simply extermination as the president said. I am proud of a president who dares tell autocratic Spain such an unpleasant truth, as was told to her. Her policy is Satanic in origin; it is Hadrian, as it was diabolical in spirit and purpose.

In closing he said with fervor, "In the name of Providence, education, American liberty and religious liberty, may the Great God and the American people drive that bigoted medieval monster from the American coast."

COMMON PLEAS COURT.

Number of Cases Were Disposed Of. Three Judges Are Presiding. Actions on Trial.

Judge Archibald in the main court room, Judge Gunster in No. 2 and Judge John G. Love, of Center county, in the superior court room, are presiding in this the third and final week of the session of the March term of common pleas.

The case of C. H. Lowry against J. B. Hally was reported settled and stricken from the list. In the case of T. C. Crutenden against C. J. Wilbur a voluntary non-suit was taken. The divorce case of D. Mahon and Katie Mahon against the Scranton Traction company was continued for settlement.

Judgment, by agreement, for the plaintiff in the sum of $112.53 was entered in Meigs, Baker & Co., against William Richardson and others. Cases continue were: Gilmore & Duffy against Thomas Lynett, H. L. Boyer and others against Meredith Jones and W. Gibson Jones, Goldsmith Jones against N. G. Shoemaker, O. F. McKerren against Eugene F. Marsh.

A. B. Davis secured judgment by default before Judge Gunster, against Jesse E. and William Austin for $75.69, and W. R. and E. E. Rice secured judgment against the same parties for $161.57. The plaintiffs in each case claimed for work done on a house owned by the defendants. There was no defense offered.

The case of P. F. Gordon of the North End against Gosner James was called before Judge Archibald. It was a suit in ejectment for a property in the Second ward. The property was originally owned by William Siscoe. Gordon had a judgment for $73 against Siscoe and executed on it. The sale of Siscoe and Gordon bought the property and now seeks to recover possession of it.

James, the defendant, claims the property by purchase from Mrs. Ann Siscoe. The plaintiff alleges and is attempting to prove that Siscoe, the original owner disposed of the property to his wife to defraud his creditors and that therefore the title held by James is not valid.

Judge Love is hearing the case of James F. Boyle against T. J. Kelly, executor of the estate of E. F. Boyle, deceased. The plaintiff seeks to recover a share in insurance money derived from the fire which destroyed the store of John D. Boyle's Sons in Dunmore, some six years ago. James F. John D. and Edward F. Boyle comprise the firm. After the fire the former two sold out their interest to Edward. When the insurance money was collected the former partners made a claim for their equal shares of it.

Edward held that when he bought out their interest in the store he also bought their share in the insurance money that it was his right to receive. The others disputed this and hence the suit.

The case of Rulland & England against John L. Hull, more familiarly known as the cabbage case, was given to the jury at 11 o'clock yesterday morning by Judge Simonton. It is a late hour last night no verdict had been reached.

Tonight's Yale Concert.

SCHOOL CONTROLLERS IN AN UGLY HUMOR

All Kinds of Differences at Last Night's Meeting.

COULD NOT AGREE ON ANYTHING

Met in a Protracted Session, Which Succeeded Only in Running the Gauntlet of Committee Reports. Mr. Barker Makes a Pointed Assertion About Flagrant Expenditures Ultimately Involving $20,000.—Mr. Gibbons Said Things to President.

There was all kinds of debate and contest at last night's board of control meeting, which was only able to adjourn after one hour and forty-five minutes wholly devoted to action on committee reports.

When Mr. Jennings, chairman of the High and Training school committee, began to make the report he explained that in view of the hands made at a previous meeting he would explain as far as practicable the brief period of time the details had been approved by the committee. He showed this plan and occupied ten minutes in doing it, and was brief than could have been expected. Resolutions, recommended by the committee, were approved restricting the use of the High school auditorium and granting to teachers of the High school the privilege of visiting other high schools during this week.

The following report of the teachers' committee was not finally disposed of until a half hour of debate, motions, counter motions and amendments had been considered.

The teachers committee estimates that the sum of $150,000 will be required for the payment of teachers' salaries for the coming year on the basis of the rate paid at present, and recommends that this amount be appropriated.

The committee, believing that some of the salaries now paid are too low, recommended that an additional sum of $15,000 be appropriated for increasing such salaries as may hereafter be recommended by the committee and approved by the board.

A motion was made by Mr. Barker to strike out the reference to an increase and refer the balance of the report to the finance committee. Mr. Gibbons made an urgent appeal that the recommended increase be allowed. Mr. Barker offered counter arguments. A tilt between Mr. Gibbons and President Francais then ensued because the latter was not disposed to recognize Mr. Gibbons' attempt to offer a second argument.

Mr. Gibbons finally succeeded in presenting a motion to table Mr. Barker's motion. The former was lost on a tie vote of 9 to 9 and Mr. Barker's motion prevailed by the following vote of 11 to 7.

Ayes—Messrs. Shires, Phillips, Casey, Zeller, May, Neuls, Evans, Schriefer, Barker, Schwab, Gibbons.

Mr. Shires finally secured favorable action on a resolution referred to the building committee at the previous meeting, providing for retaining walls, grading and fences at No. 28 building.

Mr. Schriefer, of the committee, said no money was available for the work and that the expense involved had been included in the building committee's estimate referred to the finance committee.

Mr. Shires presented a resolution favoring the proposed improvements and secured by all the committee, except Mr. Schriefer. Mr. Barker's motion that it be tabled received affirmative votes by only himself, Mr. May and Mr. Schriefer. Mr. May's motion to refer to the finance committee was lost.

The building committee's report was approved as follows, excepting the financial clause, which was referred to the finance committee:

We recommend the final adoption of the specifications for new No. 3, as prepared by John A. Duckworth, architect, the plans having already been adopted by the board, and that bids for the erection of the building be invited to be in not later than 7.30 o'clock Monday evening, May 5.

Also that the secretary be instructed to advertise for the sale and removal of old buildings on site of proposed new No. 3, bids to be in at next meeting of the board; the sum of $20 to be enclosed with each bid as a guarantee of good faith.

We recommend that old No. 23 school property be sold to Patrick Moran for $70, $15 to be paid down and the balance in monthly payments of $5, 6 per cent, interest on the unpaid balance, the final payment to be made within five years from date.

We present estimate of $90,000 for the next year for the purchase of ground and erection of buildings.
